

The information provided in this replacement cost estimator is information from a third-party company that we use for our internal purposes. We do not have any affiliation with this third party except as a user of their services. This cost is generated using sources current as of the date listed in the report and include normative costs at the geographic location. This is an estimate only and is not to be used as a detailed survey. Materials used in this survey may not be accurate. The replacement cost that is presented is an estimate and holds no guarantee of the actual replacement cost of a specific structure. The estimate is prepared only for our internal uses, and we make no representation or guaranty to any other party that the results of such estimator are any more than an estimate. Any party requiring specific replacement cost information should make their own determination on the replacement cost of a specific structure.
